

Target group, previous knowledge

- The Luxembourg Fund Officer (LFO) course is a B2B and therefore professional training course
- The course is designed for employees in the fund industry with several years of professional experience
- Participants are on the path to greater management responsibility in the fund management business
- Proof of knowledge for further professional development, e.g. in the case of new official subordination relationships and in the run-up to any authorization procedures

Course description

- Targeted development of managers and potential managers
- Short absences from work in a compact training format
- A diploma that has been recognized in the market for more than 20 years
- The latest developments in the product/market environment
- Regulatory aspects and domestic/foreign legislation
- From professionals for professionals
- Standardized terminology for a professional exchange
- Broad didactic spectrum
- Active exchange of knowledge with experts / colleagues

Specializations in the course

- Legal framework, Luxembourg and EU 25 - 35%
- Compliance, operations and risk management 25 - 35%
- Strategic business management 10 - 15%
- Product and market management 10 - 15%
- Fund & Asset Management Governance 5 - 10%
- Tax issues Collective investments 5 - 10%

Teaching and learning format

- Getting in the mood: Reading, asking questions, preparing, individually for individual learning modules
- Listening: Presentations (experts), exchange, translate content into your own language
- Group work and presentations, panels/Q&A
- Processing: Reading, asking questions and deepening
- Post-processing: Individually and in groups
- Personal time commitment approx. 20 working days, course duration: 12 days over approx. 3 months

Prices

Lehrgang LFO

Eur 8'100, plus VAT

Prices

Diplomprüfung LFO	Eur 1'600, plus VAT
-------------------	---------------------