

Target group, previous knowledge

- Our Know the FUNDamentals (KtF) is particularly suitable for career changers and those re-entering the world of collective investment schemes.
- Participants already have practical experience in the world of collective investment schemes
- Know the FUNDamentals offers participants the opportunity to deepen the knowledge of funds quickly and in a targeted manner for the requirements of professional activity.

Course description

- Compact course, 3 days, including certificate examination
- Current developments and expansion of product knowledge Dubai
- Uniform terminology for professional exchange of participants
- Broadening and deepening knowledge about collective investment schemes
- All important contexts and regulatory basics
- Very practical with use of fact sheets and fund regulations, also linking knowledge with legal texts
- Active exchange between lecturers and participants

Table of contents

- Dubai fund market, fund classifications
- Legal basics; Dubai / UAE Regulation, introduction to risk management, in-depth knowledge of licensees, ESG basics
- NAV calculation, forward pricing, pricing
- Basics of taxes and auditing Dubai

Teaching and learning format

- Preparation: reading, asking questions, preparing, individual to individual learning modules.
- Listening: presentations (experts), exchange, translating content into own language.
- Individual as well as group work and presentations, Q&A
- Processing: reading, asking questions and deepening

Prices

Course Fee

Incl. Test and Certificate

AED 12'000 plus VAT