Target group, previous knowledge

- Our Know the FUNDamentals (KtF) is particularly suitable for career changers and those re-entering the world of collective investment schemes.
- Participants already have practical experience in the world of collective investment schemes
- Know the FUNDamentals offers participants the opportunity to deepen the knowledge of funds quickly and in a targeted manner for the requirements of professional activity
- As supplementary training for Swiss Fund Officers: By passing the certificate examination of the KtF Ireland, Fund Officers acquire the title "International Fund Officer".

Course description

- Compact course, 3 days, including certificate examination
- Current developments and expansion of product knowledge Ireland
- Uniform terminology for professional exchange of participants
- Broadening and deepening knowledge about collective investment schemes
- All important contexts and regulatory basics
- Very practical with use of fact sheets and fund regulations, also linking knowledge with legal texts
- Active exchange between lecturers and participants

Table of contents

- IRE/EU fund market, fund classifications
- Legal basics, introduction to risk management, in-depth knowledge of licensees
- NAV calculation, forward pricing, pricing
- Basics of taxes and auditing Ireland

Teaching and learning format

- Preparation: reading, asking questions, preparing, individual to individual learning modules.
- Listening: presentations (experts), exchange, translating content into own language.
- Individual as well as group work and presentations, Q&A
- Processing: reading, asking questions and deepening

Prices
Course Know the FUNDamentals	incl. certificate and test	EUR 2'960